Underwriters

Underwriter applications are reviewed in the order they are received; limited opportunities are available

Show your support as a Member or Partner of DirectEmployers Association

Help keep the cost down so that employers can attend our conference for free

Build awareness of your products and services as Members are prospective consumers

Get in front of our Members often with verbal and visual reminders of your support

Share the wealth... donate those giveaways taking up space in your storage closet!

Members and Partners must complete an "intent to sponsor" form for consideration. The form and information regarding the opportunities are available at <http://deam13.directemployers.org/underwriters.asp>. Please note that the DEAM13 Sponsorship Committee will review all submissions and reserves the right to accept/deny requests.
